UNESCO HOSTS EDUCATION MEETING TO SET PRIORITIES FOR LEARNING RECOVERY

PROTECT FINANCING IN THE AFTERMATH COVID

Paris, Washington DC, 24.10.2020, 02:38 Time

USPA NEWS - UNESCO is hosting a high-level virtual meeting aimed at revitalizing Global Education, Wednesday, 22 October from 1 to 5 p.m. French time (11 a.m. to 3 p.m. in universal time). UNESCO hosts Global Education Meeting to set priorities for learning recovery and protect financing in the aftermath of the pandemic. UNESCO convened the meeting in partnership with the governments of Ghana, Norway and the United Kingdom, in order to secure commitments from global leaders for the protection of education financing during the COVID-19 recovery period, and, also, to produce consensus on priority actions for the next year. Its overarching goal is to ensure that the pandemic does not reverse decades of progress in education.
